

SOVIET PIN-UP

VALERY BARYKIN

Exhibition Duration: 5 March – 9 May 2015

Opening Reception: 5 March 2015, 6:30 – 8:30 pm

ST. PETERSBURG, LONDON, NEW YORK, ZÜRICH, HONG KONG

Erarta Galleries Hong Kong is pleased to present "Soviet Pin-Up, solo exhibition of Russian artist, Valery Barykin.

Known for his unique style, Valery Barykin's prints contrast the aesthetic of the beloved American Pin-Up culture and its heightened sexuality with the sharp-edged and saturated colors of Soviet Russia's propaganda posters. His upbringing was surrounded by socialist advertisements and mass-produced American pin-up photographs that slowly made their way into Russia after the fall of the Soviet Union.

The women in his works often resemble Soviet Russian film stars such as Lyudmila Gurcgenko and Natalya Fateeva who are sometimes scantily clad and the object of attention. Barykin displays his outrageously gorgeous and provocative women in unexpected everyday familiar situations as they enthusiastically continue to perform their stereotyped roles and female duties.

Gillian Au, Gallery Manager, Erarta Galleries Hong Kong states; 'Valery Barykin's blending of American and Soviet stereotypes as well as the addition of tongue-in-cheek slogans and exaggerated expressions of the protagonists, creates fun and flirty images that dance playfully around the serious subject matter of sexism and socialist reform. The 'Soviet Pin-Up' exhibit that Erarta Galleries Hong Kong has put together includes a number of Barykin's most famous prints and create a snapshot of this famed Russian artist's work over the last three decades.'

Born in 1966 in Ivanovo, Russia, Valery Barykin's unique style emerged from his upbringing in a strict military family and his years as soldier in the Soviet army. The strict socialist advertisements of his youth and the slow trickling in of mass-produced American pin-up photographs that made their way into the country after the fall of the Soviet Union helped to develop his distinctive style. He began combining these two opposites into his own illustrated scenes depicting the US' liberal sexual freedom juxtaposed against strict Soviet propaganda extolling the values of Communism.

Image: Valery Barykin, Give All Your Salary to Your Wife!, Limited Edition Print of 10, 90 x 60 cm, 2014

NOTES TO EDITORS

Erarta Museum and Galleries of Contemporary Art St. Petersburg is the largest private museum of contemporary art in Russia with over 170 artists from over 30 regions of Russia. The museum's subsidiary galleries are dedicated to the sale and promotion of contemporary art from their locations in New York, London and Zurich in addition to Hong Kong.

CONTACT

For further information, images or sales enquiries, please contact Gallery Manager – Gillian Au

Email: hongkong@erartagalleries.com

Tel: +852 2685 5199

Address: 159 Hollywood Road, Central, Hong Kong

Opening Hours: Tuesday – Saturday 11:00- 19:00, Monday by appointment.